

I received the enclosed in return mail. I guess they thought I was as dumb as they are and unable to understand what I read, because they carefully underlined some passages for me.

I'm afraid that I got so burned up in reading the article in the magazine that I exhausted all my ammunition in that one letter; therefore, I would appreciate it very much if you would send me some more ammunition so that I can use it to fire back at them-- the big dopes!

I want you to know that I think that you and your department are doing a fine piece of work. I am sure that we are all behind you. Keep it up. And above all stick to your job AND PLEASE DON'T RESIGN, NO MATTER HOW GOOD AN OFFER YOU MAY GET ELSEWHERE!!! America needs you. We need you badly.

Sincerely,

Irma Havnen

On 1/17/53, a party was held at the Inspiration House, 1867 Kalorama Road, N. W., Washington, D. C., which was sponsored by the captioned organization. The date of this party corresponded with the date of the termination of the picket line at the White House. The informant estimated that 73 persons attended this party, including the following individuals who were known to the informant:

The informant advised that the Southeast Club of the Progressive Party had contributed $100.00 to the captioned committee.

One of the speakers at the party was Reverend HAROLD S. WILLIAMSON of New York, who mentioned that he was very happy to be there, and that he was praying for the ROSENBERGs because he could see that they had done no wrong, and that he would be with them always in prayer.

DON ROTHENBERG of Cleveland was the next speaker, and he mentioned that the ROSENBERG Case had been such a damn frameup that it wasn't even funny. ROTHENBERG mentioned that it took money to continue the fight and pleaded with those present to give until it hurt.

A girl, whose identity was unknown to the informant, played the guitar and sang songs during the party.

The party broke up at 12:00 midnight.

The People Speak Out— On the Rosenberg Case

Dr. Roland H. Bainton, Yale Divinity School, Connecticut

"I was shocked when I read that the death sentence had been imposed upon Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, and I am glad to have the opportunity of saying a word which might have some influence in altering the sentence. . . . I feel that the sentence is too severe because it is not commensurate with that meted out to others guilty of the same offense. . . . We should by no means allow ourselves to determine life and death in terms of emotions engendered by a succession of disillusionments."

THE CHURCHMAN (Protestant Episcopalian), in an editorial on November 1, 1952:

"The Churchman feels that the death sentence, in the light of the far milder treatment of more serious offenders than the Rosenbergs, is both excessive and cruel. We believe that the execution of these two individuals will only hurt the name of the United States. . . ."

From editorial in the Brooklyn JEWISH EXAMINER,
October 24, 1952

"The value of the information transmitted to the Rosenbergs by the second-rate electrician David Greenglass, is arguable at best. The Journal of the American Association of Atomic Scientists as well as The Scientific American stated that these 'secrets' were not particularly important.

"German war criminals guilty of ghastly atrocities during World War II, as well as American traitors like Tokyo Rose and Axis Sally, escaped the supreme penalty.

"It would seem from the above that the punishment of the Rosenbergs is unduly harsh."

THE PEOPLE

From an editorial in the BOSTON CHRONICLE,
November 29, 1952, entitled "Clemency for the Rosenbergs"

"Those of us who recall the relatively light sentences meted out to Tokyo Rose and Axis Sally for their treasonable activities during World War II cannot help from considering the death sentence of the Rosenbergs as "cruel and unusual punishment." Their trial was conducted in an atmosphere conducive to the severity of their sentence, the supreme penalty, and in making this observation we are cognizant of its weight without regard to the innocence or guilt of the sentenced persons on the basis of flimsy or substantial evidence."

A letter by Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

"My dear Mr. Bloch:*

"Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of October 17. I have accepted the verdict of the courts in their conviction of the Rosenbergs for violating the espionage laws of our country. The crime of which they have been found guilty is a heinous one and I found no sympathy in my heart for men and women who betray their country. I was especially resentful of the effort that was made to drag in the issue of anti-semitism in this most unfortunate affair.

"However, I believe that the death sentence which has been imposed is unprecedented in the legal annals of our country as a punishment for espionage in peacetime. I believe that our country is strong and great-hearted enough to be merciful. Should, therefore, an appeal be made to the court or to the President of the United States for clemency and for commutation of the death sentence, I am prepared to add my name to such a plea.

"I do not wish any publicity to be given by you to this letter of mine or to my position in this matter. I wish it to be held confidential except for court or presidential use."**

* Emanuel Bloch, defense counsel for the Rosenbergs.

** Rabbi Silver has given permission to reprint this letter in its entirety, in view of the fact that portions of it have previously been published without authorization.

From article entitled "Justice and Compassion for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg," by Hillel Rogoff, editor JEWISH DAILY FORWARD, November 29, 1952

"Those who are sincerely interested in the fate of the Rosenbergs should know that now there remains but one means by which they can be saved from the electric chair and that is to move President Truman to commute the death sentence to a lesser punishment. And the appeal to the President should be made on the ground of humaneness, compassion and mercy. . . . Now all energies must be exerted toward one goal—to stop the execution. If this should succeed, then those who believe in the possibility of vindicating them can attempt to do so."

S P E A K O U T

THE NATION, article by Arthur Garfield Hays, November 8, 1952

"... We may try, but we cannot forget the two young Rosenberg children. ... It is the damnable death penalty that causes the uneasiness."

Mary Van Kleeck, sociologist

"In New York six months ago I spent many hours reading transcripts of testimony and documents of the trial. As a sociologist concerned with public opinion in international relations, I found many evidences that both judge and prosecuting attorney permitted and even intensified the injection into the trial of political issues, which had no bearing on the guilt or innocence of the defendants. May I join with others to take such action as may be possible to prevent these deaths and thus to avert this irremediable disaster in our nation's history."

Dorothy Thompson, THE WASHINGTON STAR, April 12, 1951

"The death sentence . . . depresses me . . . in 1944, we were not at war with the Soviet Union. . . . Indeed, it is unlikely that had they been tried in 1944 they would have received any such sentence."

The Rev. John Paul Jones, N. Y. TIMES, November 28

"To the Editor of The New York Times:

"The imposing of the death sentence on the two Rosenbergs is, to say the least, a troublesome matter for the conscience of thoughtful people.

"In the first place, even when conceding that the Rosenbergs have been guilty of transmitting information to the Soviet Union, the trial evidence and conduct do not remove all doubts about either the wisdom or justice of inflicting the death penalty. Great stress has been laid that this alleged crime was begun in wartime but equal stress has not been laid upon the fact that it was not connivance with a wartime enemy but with an ally. . . .

"While a layman is hardly qualified to comment upon matters of due process it is important to remember that at least some quite capable and disinterested lawyers assert that there were violations. It is hard to dispel the feeling that the mood and temper of the present time have created an atmosphere in which a fair trial has been extremely difficult, if not impossible. . . .

"Commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment will keep the Rosenbergs from doing further harm, will set a quite sufficient example of the dire consequences of subversive acts, and at the same time make it possible to correct an injustice, at least partially, should later evidence or study prove such to be the case."

From editorial in THE JEWISH DAY, October 16, 1952

"... believing in our democratic system of justice and in the just application of our laws, we feel that we are entitled to appeal to the President that he should commute the death sentence."

ON THE ROSENBERGS

Max Lerner, NEW YORK POST, June 19, 1952

"I agree that the death sentence was unprecedented and harsh."

From editorial in the JEWISH CHRONICLE, Indianapolis, Indiana, December 5, 1952

"We believe that President Truman ought to commute the death sentence imposed on Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. . . . Justice in the United States must not be more vindictive than in other civilized countries."

Father Frank North, Nashotah House, Wisconsin, in a letter to the President

"Dear Mr. President: As a priest I am as much opposed to Communism as anyone. But surely the sentence of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg for passing on atomic information to Russia while she was our ally is way out of line. In the interests of justice and decency can't you do something about their death penalties? Surely this would also be of value from the standpoint of propaganda."

Rabbi Dr. Meyer Sharff, Brooklyn, N. Y.

". . . As a devout Jew, I revere our country's laws, which carry out the humane principles enunciated in the Torah, and I am reminded that the Declaration of Independence is of one piece with our leader Moses' exhortation: 'Proclaim freedom throughout the land.' Therefore, it is inconceivable to me that in our country a death sentence should be so lightly given, as was the case in the Rosenberg Trial.

From THE COMMONWEAL, widely-circulated Catholic weekly, January 9, 1953

"The Rosenbergs were lawfully tried and, at least as far as the letter of the law goes, lawfully sentenced to pay the supreme penalty. Whether they would have received as drastic a sentence had they been tried, say, in 1946 rather than during the cold war, is doubtful.

"Whenever the state takes a life, so final is the step, there must be a certain hesitation in putting the stamp of approval upon the decision. In the case of a political crime, our tradition of political liberty makes one doubly hesitant. It is foreign to our temper as a people and to the spirit of our history to stand in the street calling for blood. . . .

"Alive, the Rosenbergs represent a constant threat to the Communist conspiracy. From hour to hour who can be sure when one or the other of them will not break down and talk? Dead, their secrets die with them. . . ."

JEWISH MORNING JOURNAL, column by Jacob Glatstein,
October 29, 1952

"One can readily see that America can very well agree not to snuff out the lives of the Rosenberg couple and not to give them the maximum penalty, which our country has never before given anyone in time of peace, and which was not given even to Dr. Klaus Fuchs, who much more directly, scientifically and consciously betrayed his country."

ROSENBERG CASE

Dr. Rudolf Carnap, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J.

"Thank you for sending me the affidavit by Professor Bernal in connection with the Rosenberg Case. I have read it with great interest. It confirmed my earlier belief that the Court has greatly overstated the importance of the scientific information contained in the sketches of implosion lenses by David Greenglass, or by any accompanying details which a man with his very limited theoretical background was able to furnish. For this reason I feel that the severity of the sentence is out of proportion to the actual damage which could possibly have been done."

Dr. Harold C. Urey, Nobel Prize Winner and renowned nuclear scientist

"I found the testimony of the Rosenbergs more believable than that of the Greenglasses. However, accepting the verdict as correct, I am amazed and completely outraged by the unequal punishment which has been given.

"Only the last two took the witness stand and maintained they are innocent and they were convicted on testimony which I do not believe is conclusive beyond a reasonable doubt. If we are going to begin to give the death penalty for espionage, I should like to have it introduced in a case in which the guilt is certain."

From column by Samuel B. Gach, editor and publisher of THE CALIFORNIA JEWISH VOICE, November 26, 1952

"If the Rosenbergs are ignited the world will see it as punitive politics; as hysterical fear overriding judgment and justice. The end result would be the stimulation of less trust and less regard for America and the world.

"It is yet not too late to show the world that sanity still prevails in our U.S.A., and that fear is as yet localized and has not spread to epidemic proportions.

"You can still save the two Rosenbergs from brutal murder by wiring President Truman for clemency."

Rabbi Abraham Cronbach, Cincinnati, Ohio

"It is argued that, through the betrayal of atomic secrets by the Rosenbergs, Russia gained a military advantage. That the act alleged of the Rosenbergs imparted to Russia any military advantage has, by no means, been proved. But granted that such advantage for Russia might have ensued, others convicted of the identical crime—Fuchs, Greenglass, Gold, Sobell, Slack, Simons, May, Brothman—have not been sentenced to die; they have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment. If the death penalty was, in those other cases, not requisite for our national defense, why should it be so regarded in the case of the Rosenbergs?"

A Cable from Twenty Israeli Rabbis, November 18, 1952

WHATEVER THE PARTICULARS WE APPEAL TO YOU MR PRESIDENT IN THE NAME OF GOD AND THE QUALITY OF MERCY TO SAVE THE LIVES OF THE COUPLE WHO ARE PARENTS OF TWO LITTLE CHILDREN STOP EVEN IF WE ASSUME THAT THEY HAD SINNED AGAINST THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES THEY SHALL NO LONGER BE ABLE TO DO SO IF KEPT UNDER SURVEILLANCE BUT SOME DAY THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO PROVE THEIR INNOCENCE STOP IN SUCH CASE YOUR CONSCIENCE AND THE CONSCIENCE OF THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE CLEAN NO INNOCENT LIFE SHALL HAVE BEEN TAKEN GUILTLESSLY STOP LET YOUR EXCELLENCY CALL TO MIND THE MILLIONS OF GUILTLESS JEWS WHO LOST THEIR LIVES AT THE HANDS OF THE NAZIS DURING THE SECOND WORLD WAR AND THE CLEMENCY THAT WAS EXTENDED TO THE PERPETRATORS OF THOSE MURDEROUS AND CRUEL ACTS OF MONSTROSITY STOP WE HONESTLY BELIEVE THAT AN ACT OF CLEMENCY IN THIS CASE IS EXCEEDINGLY VITAL AND YOUR NAME AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF AN HONORABLE PORTION OF MANKIND YOUR DEEP RELIGIOUS FEELING AND YOUR AWARENESS OF THE SPIRIT OF GOOD WITHIN YOU LEADS US TO LAY BEFORE YOU THIS OUR HUMBLE PETITION IN FULL HOPE THAT YOU WILL GRANT IT STOP GOD ALONE KNOWS THE WHOLE TRUTH STOP MAY THIS YOUR CLEMENCY BE A FITTING CROWN TO YOUR GREAT CAREER STOP

Charles E. Raven, Professor Emeritus, Cambridge University, England; Chaplain to HM, the Queen

"As one who has spent much time during the past twenty-five years in the United States and has a deep concern for Anglo-American friendship I cannot but deplore the death sentence upon the Rosenbergs both in itself and from its inevitable effect upon British and world opinion.

"... this savage verdict underlines the conviction that America, instead of leading the world to a more righteous and liberal way of life, is becoming so hysterical in its dread of Communism as to betray the very principles upon which its Constitution was founded and which its past history has always respected.

"The sentence of death, whatever the merits of the case, is a tragic event for all lovers of the Republic."

Dudley Collard, attorney, England

"Even if the guilt of . . . Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were satisfactorily established, and I am far from being convinced that this is the case, I should be profoundly shocked at the passing upon them in time of peace a sentence of death, which in my opinion is unworthy of any country with a claim to call itself civilized. My opinion is shared by all my professional colleagues at the Bar of England to whom I have spoken of the matter, irrespective of their political opinions."

The Very Rev. C. W. Chandler, Dean of Waikato, New Zealand

"Assuming that Julius and Ethel Rosenberg are guilty, it must be borne in mind that it was during World War II, when Russia was an ally, that these persons committed these offenses. As heinous as the offense may be, it does not merit a death sentence, and I cannot believe that in this instance the President of your Republic will allow this sentence to stand. It would be cruel, inhuman and barbaric in the extreme and would raise a storm of protest throughout the world if one of the chief partners in the world's Democratic States, countenanced the infliction of a death penalty, where even a modicum of doubt existed as to the guilt of the persons concerned."

Duke of Bedford, Woburn, Bucks, England

"Capital punishment for political offenses is unworthy of a truly civilized government and suggests its inability to protect itself adequately from hostile or objectionable political influences, either by sound administration at home, or by a just, imaginative and enlightened policy in its dealings with foreign nations."

Rev. Stanley Evans, England

"The view of this section of British opinion is that so much evidence was allowed as to opinion and so little offered as to the fact of guilt that these two people would never have been convicted by an English Court, still less sentenced to the extreme penalty of death.

"We are watching with the deepest anxiety your efforts to secure remission of this terrible sentence."

Sydney Silverman, Member of Parliament, England

"... I have no hesitation at all in saying that I contemplate with horror the possibility that the death sentence could be carried out in such a case by any civilized country; least of all the United States upon whom history has placed in our time so heavy a responsibility for the wise leadership of so many nations in the onward march of civilization. . . . To exact the extreme penalty from these two unfortunates in these circumstances is to make the Rosenbergs personally responsible for all the errors of the statesmen of the world which since the end of the war have so tragically lost the peace for which we all hoped. That may, as many think, be the sole responsibility of the U.S.S.R.; it surely is not that of the Rosenbergs."

Lord Chorley of Kendal (formerly Cassel Professor of Law in the University of London)

"I am strongly averse to the death penalty, carrying out of the death sentence in such a case as this. I shall be glad to add my name in an appeal to the President for clemency."

Nicole J. Dreyfus, prominent lawyer, Paris

"It is with the saddest feelings that I learned of the death sentence against Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and I raise my voice to demand a revision of the judgment."

Janet Jagan, Member Georgetown Town Council, British Guiana

"I am in full agreement with the opposition against this ruthless measure . . . and join in the world-wide protest against such inhuman treatment."

From the JEWISH WESTERN BULLETIN, official organ of the Jewish Council of Vancouver

"The Bulletin does not question the conviction of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg. We do feel, however, that the request for clemency directed to President Truman that he should commute the death sentence imposed on these people, is fully justified. . . .

"Finally, it should be noted that this statement represents the unanimous opinion of the Editorial Committee of this publication."

From lead editorial in the TORONTO HEBREW DAILY JOURNAL, November 24, 1952

"It is also important to know that appealing to their president is not only the task of citizens of the United States. It is the duty of all right-minded liberal people in the entire world to let their voices be heard, and to appeal to the president.

"The example of the 22 Rabbis of Israel, who appealed directly to President Truman on behalf of the Rosenbergs, must serve as an example.

"We are of the opinion, that all liberal and progressive people in Canada must join in this appeal and ask President Truman to spare the lives of the Rosenbergs, because where the law is too harsh there is room for compassion. It is human to commit a crime, it is also human to forgive.

"In the case of the Rosenbergs, it is no excessive request that the death sentence not be carried out. Precedents for this are numberless."

D. N. Pritt, London, Queen's Counsel

"I am forced to the conclusion that, even if the conviction of the Rosenbergs had rested on the reliable evidence that they had conspired to obtain some information, any sentence expressed by the judge to be based on such inaccurate and unproved assertions as to the importance of the information would have to be set aside on appeal under any procedure which provided for a free review of the sentence by an Appellate Court.

"Unfortunately, the procedure applicable to this case does not provide for such a review, any more than it provides for a consideration of the credibility of the witnesses or the reliability of the evidence. Were the procedure different, it may well be that the whole matter would have been disposed of already. But there is, in effect, no appeal at all to any court from either of the two main defects of this trial, namely, the unreliability of the evidence and the gravely excessive sentence.

"The duty of securing a review on these points thus rests on public opinion throughout the world. After full study, for the reasons which I have expressed above, I must express the view, from a purely professional standpoint, that it would offend against all Anglo-Saxon standards of justice that the convictions, let alone the sentence, of the Rosenbergs should be allowed to stand."

ROSENBERG COMMITTEE RAISES FEARS THAT OTHER PLEAS WERE KEPT FROM PRESIDENT

In the light of circumstances "which have arisen through no fault of the Chief Executive," the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case today urged President Eisenhower to reconsider his adverse clemency decision.

Full text of the statement follows:

"During the last few months thousands of eminent spiritual as well as lay leaders in the American community and from other parts of the world addressed clemency pleas to the Department of Justice. These appeals were dictated by the noblest sentiments of mercy and justice. They represented a wide section of American and world public opinion who, though differing as to the merits of the Rosenberg case, were unanimous in the conviction that the unprecedented death sentences should be commuted.

"The distressing fact that the appeal for mercy for the Rosenbergs by Pope Pius XII was not brought to your attention raises serious fears that many significant pleas were not made available to you before you reached your decision on executive clemency.

"It would be tragic, if for any reason whatsoever those expressions for mercy should be excluded from the information upon which you must make a profound decision.

"We respectfully urge that, in the light of these circumstances, which have arisen through no fault of the Chief Executive, you give renewed consideration to the appeals for commutation of the death sentences."

Respectfully,

Joseph Brainin, Chairman
David Aiken, Executive Secretary

President Dwight D. Eisenhower

IF YOU KNEW...

- If you knew that the execution of two people—in the electric chair—might affect your own life in the future . . .
- If you knew that grave doubts exist in the minds of many people about certain points in this case . . .
- If you knew this, you would want to know the facts . . .

There Are Grave Doubts —in the Rosenberg Case

A young married couple, both members of trade unions, sit in the death house today, convicted of "conspiracy to commit espionage."

Nobody argues that spies should go unpunished.

But there are two things we want to be sure of before punishing people—especially when that punishment is death.

- Are they guilty beyond a shadow of a doubt?
- Are they getting equal punishment for their crime, or are they getting something "extra" because of the general hysteria surrounding their case?

INNOCENT?

The Rosenbergs deny to this day that they ever conspired to pass atomic secrets to Russia.

Prof. Albert Einstein and Dr. Harold C. Urey, two of the top scientists in the world, say they aren't convinced that the Rosenbergs are guilty.

Prof. Stephen Love, Chairman of the Character and Fitness Committee of the Illinois Supreme Court, says he thinks the Rosenbergs did not get a fair trial.

Thousands of other lawyers and scientists and sociologists say the same thing.

They have read the court record in the Rosenberg Case—and they fear the jury was influenced by newspaper stories and the general atmosphere of tension that exists today.

They point to the fact that the Rosenbergs weren't even charged with giving secrets to Russia—but with "conspiring" to do that. That means that the prosecution knew it couldn't prove a case of "espionage." They point out that, just as in the famous Tom Mooney case, the FBI has admitted that perjured testimony was used to convict the Rosenbergs.

THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO SAY: "GUILTY—BUT . . ."

Millions of Americans, through letters to the President, through prayers, special resolutions in their unions and fraternal organizations, churches and synagogues, have asked that the death sentence be commuted—while taking no stand on the innocence or guilt of the Rosenbergs.

Among them are over 2,000 Protestant clergymen, the Nation magazine, the New Republic, trade unions, women's organizations, and others.

They ask for clemency because the Rosenbergs are the first and only Americans ever sentenced to death on such a charge—in peacetime or wartime.

● Even people convicted of treason—of dealing with an enemy—have been given only 10 year sentences (Axis Sally, Tokyo Rose, others).

● Death sentences in political cases (Sacco-Vanzetti, Tom Mooney, for example) always add to the hysteria of the times, and are used by anti-labor elements to deprive the unions of their rights.

FOR THESE REASONS AMERICAN LABOR SHOULD ASK THE PRESIDENT TO COMMUTE THE DEATH SENTENCES.

Unanswered Questions in the Rosenberg Case

- Why did Prosecutor Saypol use perjured testimony to help convict the Rosenbergs?

FBI Agent John A. Harrington admitted in a sworn affidavit, on December 1, 1952, that, with HIS knowledge, a government witness lied at the trial.

- Why didn't Prosecutor Saypol call top atomic scientists Dr. Harold C. Urey and Dr. S. Robert Oppenheimer to testify after he had announced to the court and the press that they would be witnesses?

Dr. Urey subsequently made a public statement saying, "I found the testimony of the Rosenbergs more believable than that of the Greenglasses."

- Why did Prosecutor Saypol rely on the testimony of David Greenglass, a machinist with no scientific education, who said he drew up a sketch of the atom bomb by "overhearing" conversations?

Greenglass, who admitted he stole secrets from the government, received a fifteen year sentence after he implicated the Rosenbergs. His wife, also a confessed spy, was never even indicted and is free today.

- Why did Prosecutor Saypol falsely announce to the press that another "spy" would support Greenglass's testimony?

C. The conviction of the Rosenbergs... and the fact that the conviction of the Rosenbergs... action should have caused a mistrial.

COMMENTS ON CLEMENCY:

The Catholic news magazine, COMMONWEAL, states:

... Whether they would have received a sentence had they been convicted... and the fact that the conviction of the Rosenbergs... action should have caused a mistrial.

THE CHURCHMAN magazine states:

... We believe that the execution of these two individuals will only hurt the name of the United States.

THE CHURCHMAN magazine states:

"We believe that the execution of these two individuals will only hurt the name of the United States."

Dear Friend:

January 14, the day set for the execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, will pass and the Rosenbergs will still be alive. The stay they have been granted will last until the President takes some sort of action, and for five days thereafter. This means that the Rosenbergs can be re-sentenced to death, if Executive clemency is not granted, anytime after January 20. We are, of course, heartened by this small success. We wish to urge that you continue your efforts to obtain letters and telegrams to the President urging him to grant Executive Clemency.

Letters should likewise now also go to the Governor of your state, to Congressmen, Mayors, and other officials, urging that they intervene with the President to grant Executive Clemency.

In the past six weeks, we have obtained advertising space in newspapers reaching some five million persons. We have within the short time left to us to reach another five million. We know that we have called upon you before for financial help. We should like to suggest, at this time, that rather than make another contribution of your own if you have made one already, that you try to arrange a party or some other sort of function at which urgently needed funds can be raised.

Sincerely,

David Alman

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FRENCH RABBINATE APPEALS FOR CLEMENCY FOR THE ROSENBERGS

Rosenberg Committee Chairman Questions Whether Rabbis' Plea Was Withheld from President Eisenhower

The Association of French Rabbis, leading body of all the registered Rabbis in France, wrote to President Truman on January 2 appealing to him to grant clemency to Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, it was learned by the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case.

The Rabbinate's appeal was reported in a message sent by the French Committee for Defense of the Rosenbergs, which reads:

"At this time, when the case of the Rosenbergs is again being submitted to the U.S. Supreme Court, the Chief Rabbi of France directed our attention to the fact that on the second of January of this year the Association des Rabbins Francais wrote to the President of the U.S. appealing for clemency for the Rosenberg couple.

"The French Rabbinate pleaded for executive clemency on religious and humane grounds 'in the name of our common ideal of justice and mercy in accordance with the Bible.'"

News of the French Rabbinate's appeal prompted the U.S. Rosenberg Committee to ask whether this clemency appeal too had been withheld from the Chief Executive as happened in the case of the message sent by His Holiness Pope Pius XII.

A delegation representing the National Rosenberg Committee, which queried the Justice Department on this matter on January 21, was informed by the Justice Department spokesman that it would "take the lead" to determine whether the Department had even received the plea.

Commenting on the Justice Department's reply, Joseph Brainin, Chairman of the National Rosenberg Committee declared: "The Justice Department's evasive reply with regard to the French Rabbinate's clemency plea, following on the heels of the admission that the Pope's message was not shown to either President Truman or President Eisenhower must raise serious questions as to whether or not there has been a deliberate plot by high-placed government officials to conceal the facts in the Rosenberg Case from the President's attention.

"It is a shocking thing that the Department which is charged with responsibility for dispensing justice in our country admits that it treats messages from world dignitaries with either a careless disregard for their contents or a callous policy of file-and-forget.

"In either case, it is time for a full-scale investigation to determine why these incidents have occurred and to see to it that the full facts in the Rosenberg Case are brought to President Eisenhower's attention so that he can give adequate consideration to the widespread request that he reconsider his decision denying clemency.

Commenting on the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals action in granting a stay of execution to the Rosenbergs so that their request for a new trial on grounds of "fraud and perjury" can be submitted to the Supreme Court Brainin observed: "It is now evident to millions that full justice has not yet been done in the Rosenberg Case. Only a new trial can do that and dispel the grave doubts that the electric chair can never erase."

The Committee has urged that messages for clemency and a new trial be sent to President Eisenhower and U.S. Attorney General Brownell.

Rosenberg Sentence Queried

Dr. Harold C. Urey, Nobel Prize Winner and renowned nuclear scientist

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK TIMES:

After reading the testimony of the Rosenberg case I find that I cannot put to rest my doubts about the verdict and wish to cite the following points:

(1) Max Elitcher's testimony is of doubtful value. He says that he and Julius talked about espionage but never transferred any information for some five years. This doesn't seem probable to me.

(2) No certain conspiracy between Sobell and Rosenberg is established.

(3) The connections to others than Ruth and David Greenglass are not established. Miss Bentley was unable to identify the telephone voice that said, "This is Julius" with the voice of Julius Rosenberg. If "Julius" did not refer to him in this case, it probably did not when Harry Gold said, "I came from Julius" when he met Greenglass in New Mexico. From Gold's testimony it seems that he knew nothing of Rosenberg at all. It seems unbelievable to me that the name of an arch conspirator would be used in such identification phrases.

(4) No contact between the Rosenbergs and Anatoli A. Yakovlev is established.

(5) The Government's case rests on the testimony of Ethel and David Greenglass. He had pleaded guilty, but had not been sentenced and hoped for clemency. She has never been charged and tried, obviously it seems as a reward for her testimony. A family feud between the Greenglasses and Rosenbergs existed because of a business altercation. The Rosenbergs' testimony flatly contradicted that of the Greenglasses.

Testimony of Rosenbergs

I found the Rosenbergs' testimony more believable than that of the Greenglasses, although I realize that I have not had the jurors' advantage of hearing and seeing the witnesses. Is it customary for spies to be paid in wrist watches and console tables? Greenglass and Fuchs were paid in cash. The Rosenbergs appear to have been as poor as churchmice and the statement that Julius was spending $50 or $75 a night in night clubs seems to me to be a very doubtful one. Had he done this, he would have been obviously and unaccountably rich to all his associates.

However, even if the verdict is correct, I am amazed at the unequal punishment for the same crime. For the very same conspiracy Ruth Greenglass was never brought to trial, though she admitted her guilt on the witness stand; David Greenglass got fifteen years; Morton Sobell and Harry Gold got thirty years, and Ethel and Julius Rosenberg got death. Only the last two took the witness stand and maintained their innocence. If capital punishment is to be given in the future for espionage I should like to have it introduced in a case for which the evidence rests on the testimony of witnesses who did not stand to profit from their testimony. I do not regard self-confessed criminals as reliable witnesses.

We are engaged in a struggle with the tyrannical Government of the U. S. S. R. We wish to win the approval and loyalty of the good people of the world. Would it not be embarrassing if, after the execution of the Rosenbergs, it could be shown that the United States had executed two innocent people and let a guilty one go completely free? And, remember, somewhere there is a representative of the U. S. S. R. who knows what the facts are.

I strongly urge a careful reconsideration of this sentence.

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing this letter to ask you to exercise clemency in the case of the death sentences given by the Honorable Irving R. Kaufman to Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

"From the standpoint of justice, I think the conviction rests on too shaky a foundation. No need for me to detail the risk of accepting in a conspiracy charge evidence of confessed conspirators who stand to profit from turning State's evidence. This conviction was obtained during a period of mounting hysteria by evidence of witnesses whom the law considers unreliable because of the very hope of reward or mitigation. Besides the general hysteria generated by fear and hate of communism which was interjected into that trial, it appears that there may have been the influence of anti-Semitism in a reverse sort of way. The trial judge was Jewish, the prosecutor was Jewish, and the defendants in the conspiracy trial were mostly, if not all, Jewish. In the light of the fact that many of the idealistic Jews, especially in New York City where the trial was held, have been tinged with leanings toward Communism, there may have been unconsciously an effort to lean over backward against the Jews who were accused of obtaining espionage information for the benefit of the U.S.S.R. I think the likelihood that the sketches made by Greenglass (who had no more than a high school education, which included no course in physics) said by him to have illustrated material picked up from overheard conversations at Los Alamos while he worked as a mechanic could hardly have done the great damage feared by Judge Kaufman. Atomic scientists tell us that it would take pages of fine print material and accurate information to intelligently expound the structure of the atomic bomb.

On the side of mercy, never before has the death sentence been imposed on those guilty of espionage in times of peace, especially where it seems probable that, in spite of Judge Kaufman's expressed concern at the effect of the information supposed to have been passed on, it did not in the slightest way aid the U.S.S.R. Of course, if the latter were guilty, that would be legally irrelevant, but it certainly would not be irrelevant in the matter of fixing the penalty of death. To further detail elements which make the conviction untrustworthy would only prolong the length of this letter.

Under these circumstances, it seems utterly disproportionate to the offense for this couple with two young children to be put to death. There seems to be doubt as to their guilt. In view of that doubt, there should not be carried out a sentence which will work an irretrievable result if future developments show the pair were innocent.

I join the host of persons who have petitioned you to commute these sentences. I hope you will take this opportunity to perform that deed of mercy before the termination of your term."

Sincerely,

AN OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT DWIGHT EISENHOWER

Requesting Clemency For Julius and Ethel Rosenberg on Religious and Moral Grounds

From: Rabbi Abraham L. Feinberg, Holy Blossom Temple, Toronto, Canada,
Rev. James M. Finlay, Carlton Street United Church, Toronto, Canada,
Rev. William P. Jenkins, First Unitarian Church, Toronto, Canada.

Fifteen hundred Protestant clergymen in the United States recently signed an open letter to your predecessor, asking executive clemency for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, now under sentence of death as convicted atom spies. The undersigned clergy of a United Church, a Unitarian Church and a Jewish Synagog in Toronto, Canada, as individuals, add their plea to that of the 1500, on grounds of religion, morality and humane sentiment.

We believe that Western democracy must guard itself against infection by the political brutality of the totalitarian despotism against whose ruthless power it is being forced to struggle for existence. The periodic execution of spies, for which the peace-time and unprecedented Rosenberg death penalty may provide an American pattern, should be allowed to remain a Soviet monopoly. The democratic cause needs no methods of vengeance and terror to preserve its internal security.

We believe that a moral conflict requires strict adherence to moral principles. The West has an opportunity in the Rosenberg case to prove that the spirit and conduct of its people can be moderate and disciplined even under severe provocation. Such an example to millions of people throughout the world, especially in "neutral" lands whose favour is sought, would be more effective in the propaganda war than the extreme punishment of the Rosenbergs, who will be prevented from further activity no less by life imprisonment than by death.

We believe that the claim of Western democracy to be the bastion of religion must be validated in act as well as word. The Judeo-Christian tradition profoundly questions the official exercise of the death penalty by the State. If the teachings of religion are true, the ultimate inner spiritual health and wholeness of Western civilisation can be served more effectively by tempering justice with mercy, rather than by implementing the letter of the penal code.

We believe that Communist pressures are actually hindering the growth of humanitarian support for clemency to the Rosenbergs -- perhaps by design, to reap the propaganda benefit of their so-called "martyrdom".

Our request bears no relation to the question of guilt; the Rosenbergs have received every possible legal protection over a two-year period from the highest courts of law. We are not motivated by the totally-unjustifiable charge of anti-Semitism, which reeks with hypocrisy when inspired by a regime guilty of the Prague trials and the fantastic anti-Jewish program currently being organized behind the Iron Curtain. We have little interest in comparing the Rosenberg electric-chair verdict with the far-lighter sentences meted out in England to Klaus Fuchs and Alan Nunn May (now free), and to the convicted Canadian spies, who were all under the jurisdiction of different laws.

Our primary concern is that the Rosenberg penalty represent basic, abiding concepts of justice and humanitarianism as taught by Christianity and Judaism. These ideals are the permanent, precious fabric of Western democracy, and the guarantee of its right to existence. Because the Rosenberg case puts them to a dramatic test, we respectfully take the liberty to send you this appeal for clemency.

MERCY FOR THE ROSENBERGS—Freda Kirchwey

Mercy for the Rosenbergs

BY FREDA KIRCHWEY

WHETHER Julius and Ethel Rosenberg live or die, their case will be tried over and over again in the minds of people everywhere. One need not question the ability or good faith of Judge Kaufman to recognize that there are weak spots in the evidence on which the Rosenbergs were convicted and sentenced. But at this eleventh hour such considerations are almost irrelevant. What remain important as the day of execution approaches are deeper considerations of humanity and mercy and an honest weighing of the Rosenbergs' offense against the irreparable punishment they face. It is not necessary to challenge their guilt; it is essential to ask whether the crime they committed, in the circumstances under which they committed it, justifies death. By refusing to grant the Rosenbergs judicial clemency Judge Kaufman last week reiterated his belief that it does.

Now President Truman must ask himself that question, and we profoundly hope he will find a different answer. Otherwise his conscience and that of the American people will be heavily burdened. We have not yet hardened ourselves to endure the ruthless dictates of "political justice"; we still reject concepts of vengeance and exemplary punishment. If the Rosenbergs die, we shall feel that both concepts presided at their execution.

It would be absurd to minimize the crime of which they were convicted. Whether or not it was "worse than murder," as Judge Kaufman declared, it was bad enough. It was not treason, and it was not spying in behalf of an enemy country—however bad it is to keep that in mind in the atmosphere of cold war. Judge Kaufman

It was not treason, and it was not spying in behalf of an enemy country—however bad it is to keep that in mind in the atmosphere of cold war. Judge Kaufman tion that peace-time espionage would not justify the death sentence.

The truth is, Judge Kaufman denies any validity to the extenuating effect of our war-time alliance with Russia by citing as a precedent the case of the German spies and saboteurs who slipped into this country in 1942. Few protests were heard, he says, against their execution after a military trial. He makes nothing of the fact that these spies were working for an enemy with which we were at war—our major enemy.

He ignores completely a further fact which would demolish this precedent, even were it a legitimate one. There were other German saboteurs who slipped into the United States after the lot he refers to. They were also tried and sentenced to death. But they were not executed while the war lasted, and when it ended and the problem of dealing with them arose, their sentence was commuted and they were sent to federal prison. The complete story of the German spies would provide an excellent precedent for reducing, not confirming, the sentence against the Rosenbergs.

THE Judge also did his best to counter the plea that the death sentence is far out of line with the penalties imposed for similar offenses in Britain and Canada. Klaus Fuchs, he says, received the maximum punishment possible under British law, and both Fuchs and Alan Nunn May pleaded guilty; in any case this country is under no obligation to "blindly follow the law of a foreign nation." One can only urge, in answer, that when our own law permits, we would do well to follow so pertinent an example of restraint and humanity. The alternative to a death sentence in the Rosenbergs' case would be a maximum of thirty years in prison, as compared with the lifetime term given to the Fuchs.

...in the minds of people everywhere. One need not question the ability or good faith of Judge Kaufman to recognize that there are weak spots in the evidence on which the Rosenbergs were convicted and sentenced. It was not treason, and it was not spying in behalf of an enemy country—however bad it is to keep that in mind in the atmosphere of cold war. Judge Kaufman

We commend these words to President Truman in the firm belief that no final act would better prove his courage and independence than the granting of clemency to these two convicted spies.

Re: The Rosenberg Case

January 8, 1953.

Dear Colleague,

We send you this statement in support of the application by Julius and Ethel Rosenberg for Executive Clemency. We do so regardless of our views as to the propriety of their conviction, but because we believe that under all the circumstances the execution of the death penalty against them will not serve the best interests of the United States and would not conform to the great traditions of our jurisprudence.

The Rosenbergs were convicted of the crime of conspiracy to commit espionage. As serious as is that offense against the State, it is not nearly as grave as the crime of treason, the most extreme offense in the hierarchy of crimes against the State.

It is common knowledge that in the entire history of our country, not even for the grave crime of treason, has any person convicted by a non-military court in peace time, paid the extreme penalty. Even in recent cases, such persons as Axis Sally, Tokyo Rose, Ezra Pound and Robert Best, who actively aided and supported enemy nations with which we were at war, were spared the ultimate penalty. The Rosenbergs were not charged with treason.

The offense for which they were convicted was not that of giving aid and comfort to an enemy of the United States but to a nation which was an ally of this country during a great war and is even today a nation with which we are at peace. Clearly, therefore, the Rosenbergs' crime, although we would not disparage its gravity, was not of the extremity of treason itself. To apply the death penalty to the Rosenbergs under these circumstances would be cruel and unusual.

If the same punishment is administered to them as may be administered in the most extreme cases of treason, the fundamental isolation of treason and its distinction from other crimes against the State as contemplated by the Framers of the Constitution, will have been lost. The incongruity of the execution of the punishment of death in this case is emphasized by the fact that even persons convicted of the most heinous crime against the State--treason--have not been given the death penalty. To apply that penalty where the individuals concerned gave assistance to a nation which was an ally of the United States--no matter in how unfriendly and hostile a light we may regard the ally today--would confound the fundamental principles of our traditional justice.

We must be aware that a crime against the State arouses the most intense passion among those devoted to the nation and its interests. It is not difficult when confronted with such a crime at a critical period in history, to allow that passion to generate an exaggeration of the effect of the crime. It is in this light that the comments of the Trial Judge at the time of sentence may be understood. He declared:

"What the Rosenbergs did in putting into the hands of the Russians the A bomb years before our best scientists predicted Russia would perfect the bomb, has already caused, in my opinion, the Communist aggression in Korea with the resulting casualties exceeding 50,000..."

It was in the light of this reaction of the Trial Judge that he imposed the sentence of death. But, his thoughts and his words at the critical moment of conviction may be better evaluated in the calmer perspective afforded by distance from the event itself. Many reasons have been advanced for the outbreak of war in Korea. But no responsible person today would objectively lay responsibility therefor at the door of the Rosenbergs. Nor, indeed, has subsequent analysis supported the suggestion even that the Rosenbergs were responsible for giving to Russia the secret of the Atom bomb "years before our best scientists predicted Russia would perfect the bomb". The known facts are "that there were no unpublished secrets concerning atomic weapons and no secret laws of nature available only to a few" (Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer) and that "the principles that have been used were well known to the international scientific world in 1940" (Smyth Report, Official Report of U.S. Gov't. Atomic Energy Development, 1945).

The sentence having been rendered and it having been within statutory limits, precedent made it impossible for the appellate courts to reduce or commute it. It is precisely in such a situation that the importance of the power of executive clemency becomes manifest. It is only by virtue of the exercise of such power that a clear injustice may be averted.

It is important at this junction in history to demonstrate to the world that the United States proceeds against those who are regarded as even the most serious criminals against the State only on the basis of its recognized processes of law. It will not do this country good to bring about the death of the Rosenbergs for espionage while we punish only with imprisonment those who devoted themselves during the war to accomplishing the defeat of the United States. The incongruity involved in such disparate treatment carries a suspicion of vindictiveness and of oppression because of political views unworthy of our great democratic tradition.

This conclusion is fortified by the fact that a conviction for treason could not have been obtained on the basis of the accomplice testimony which supported the conviction for conspiracy to commit espionage in this case.

For these reasons, we submit that the petition for clemency should be granted and that the death sentence should be commuted to life imprisonment.

We respectfully suggest that members of the Bar write and wire to the President of the United States requesting that he grant clemency to the Rosenbergs.

Very truly yours,

Michael B. Atkins

PRESS RELEASE

URGE CLEMENCY FOR ROSENBERGS

CIO United Shoe Workers' Local 65, AFL Jewelry Workers' Local 1, and CIO Furniture Workers' Local 140 are the latest union groups to call on President Truman to commute the death sentences of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, the National Labor Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs has announced.

The CIO Shoe Local's action came at a recent meeting of its Executive Board, Julius Zelazo, Board chairman informed the Labor Committee

The AFL Jewelers' Local, following unanimous approval of its Executive Board, authorized its president, Andrew Leredu, to send President Truman a telegram declaring that the AFL local "takes no position on the issues in the case" but that "we feel very strongly that the death penalty in this case would constitute cruel and unusual punishment."

Alex Birota, Manager of CIO Furniture Local 140, wired President Truman: "On behalf of 2,500 members of our local union, we urge you exercise Executive Clemency in Rosenberg case. Regardless of guilt or innocence of these two people, our membership feels that the death penalty is too severe and urges you to stop execution."

The Secretary of the Labor Committee, Abe Weisburd, also announced that the New York Branch of the National Union of Marine Cooks and Stewards sent a message to the White House through its Port Agent, Irving Dvorin, stating in part: "The entire history of the U.S. does not show a single case where a death sentence was imposed during peacetime for 'conspiracy to commit espionage'... Urge you grant Executive Clemency for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg."

In announcing the unionists' clemency action, the Labor Committee called on all unionists throughout the United States to appeal to President Truman to grant clemency to the Rosenbergs.

The Committee said, "The death sentence, which is unprecedented, has evoked shock and a feeling that it is cruel and inhuman. Many prominent lawyers, religious leaders and a growing number of union leaders have expressed their doubt as to the due process accorded the Rosenbergs at the trial."

It added, "We support the position of the Rev. John Paul Jones of the Union Church of Bay Ridge (Presbyterian) who has said, "If a serious miscarriage of justice has taken place, there will be an opportunity to correct it, at least in part."

By Betty Stross

She holds her head high and watches her 3½ year old son proudly as he scribbles on the small slate blackboard. His large brown eyes are very intent on the chalk marks and his full little mouth is pursed with concentration.

She touches his forehead and smooths his soft blonde hair gently.

"He has a cold," she says. "But the fever is down and I thought I'd let him play awhile this afternoon."

All over America mothers keep their children inside when they have winter colds, and caress their children's faces as they make sure the fever is gone. All over America mothers watch their children playing.

But this young woman who holds her head high with love and pride is Helen Sobell, who is fighting every day and every night to save the lives of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg and to free her husband, Morton, framed to 30 years in the case.

And the child is Mark Sobell, whose father Thanksgiving Eve was sent to Alcatraz, one of the worst prisons in America, a prison for hardened, incorrigible criminals.

"I work at the office of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg case, every day," she said. "And I speak several times a week."

She's a little over five feet tall and slightly built. I looked at her and said, "Have you had a physical check-up? Are you taking vitamins? You have to take care of yourself when you're working so hard."

"I don't have that much time to think about myself," she said, and began to speak of her husband.

"They are trying to destroy Marty by sending him to Alcatraz," she said. "They want him to name innocent people as spies and admit a crime he never committed. They've been vicious, they've shown him nasty anonymous letters and told him rumors that I might leave him.

"They've sent him to Alcatraz and the Rosenbergs to a death sentence because they will not become informers."

She paused a moment and brushed back her short dark hair. Then she said with quiet intensity, "I will fight every hour of every day for 30 years," and the dignity and strength that struggle gives to a human being were in the lines that deepened in her soft round face and in the way her small hands tightened into fists.

She told of how the parole officer spoke to her every week when she visited Morton at the West Street House of Detention, where he was held from March until November. "He used to say to me, 'Morton could have helped himself, but he didn't. You could have helped Morton, too, but you haven't,'

"And, the FBI said to me right after he was arrested, 'You'll be surprised at how much you'll remember after you've worked with us for awhile. Your baby needs his father'.

"I'll never remember anything I didn't remember before," she said. "There is nothing to remember."

She has been pressured by the FBI, the press, the radio and the penal system, but she is not fighting alone. People from all over America, of all religions and nationalities, and millions throughout the world have spoken out to save the Rosenbergs, and to free her husband.

It is this that is in her voice as she speaks, in the clear, simple way that makes everyone who hears her feel that she speaks directly to them. It is because she knows that people will listen and fight together with her. It is her faith in the people that gives her the strength to

We sit in the sunny little apartment in upper Manhattan and she gathers together pieces of a puzzle Mark had been playing with.

These simple, ordinary things, a child's puzzle, a blackboard, make FBI threats even uglier and make this mother's fight, the people's fight, even more important. I thought, we live in a time when these things happen to ordinary people and ordinary people are fighting back.

She looked at the blackboard. "I remember when Morty shopped for it," she said. "He shopped so carefully, he made sure it was real slate and not just paper-covered cardboard."

Mark stopped working at the blackboard. "Where's the rest?" he asked, pointing to the puzzle.

She showed him. "I hope you don't mind if he interrupts every now and then," she said. "He likes to be part of things."

Mark is always part of things, even when Helen visited Morton at the West Street prison. "We went in a family group," she said. "Mark and my 13-year old daughter Sydney and Morty's parents. We were separated from him by a thick glass wall, we had to talk to him by telephone. Mark always asked to speak first."

Mark put down his chalk and came over to me. "Can I sit close to you?" he asked, with a warm, sweet smile. And he snuggled up to me.

"He's not shy of strangers," I said.

"He isn't afraid of people," she said.

I looked at this smiling child who held my hand so confidently, a child who has visited his father in prison every week. He is part of his mother's love and struggle, part of a people's victory, a child who has learned courage and faith in people before he has learned to write letters on a blackboard.

The family is very close, although Morton has been imprisoned for more than two years. Helen showed me a letter he wrote from West Street. "He was only allowed 3 letters a week," she said, holding out a letter closely written in ink on both sides of the paper, and folded into three parts.

"It can be cut on the folds so each of us has a part," she said. "One for Mark and one for Sydney and one for me."

What has her life been like, this 34 year old woman who keeps her family united, who leads a fight to save the Rosenbergs and to save her husband from the living death of 30 years in Alcatraz?

She learned the fight to be alive when she was 17 and a victim of infantile paralysis. "The doctors said I would never walk again," she said. "I was strapped in a cast, flat on my back, in bed for six months. In about a year I walked again."

Today she stands and walks very straight with no mark of the disease.

As a physicist, she has fought for her right as a woman to work in a field where women are discriminated against. She majored in science, mathematics and education at Wilson Teachers' College in her home city, Washington, D.C. She wasn't able to attend her graduation exercises in 1940 because she was pregnant with her daughter Sydney.

During World War II, she worked as a physicist at the National Bureau of Standards in Washington. A paper she wrote on facilitating the measurement of optical glass was published by the government.

She met Morton when he was working in Washington, and later they worked for General Electric in Schenectady, New York. She was an engineer's assistant, he an ~~an~~ engineer.

She smiled, remembering a happy time. "We worked ~~together~~ <sup>there</sup> and ate lunch together," she said. "And once we took Sydney in our #37 Dodge coupe for a vacation in Canada."

She wanted more education, so she took more physics and more mathematics at Rensselaer Polytechnical Institute in Troy, N.Y. She wanted to know more science, to have the freedom of more knowledge of the natural world.

As we were talking, Sydney came home from school, carrying her books and an ice cream cone for Lark. Helen left the house with me to go down to do some work for the Committee. Sydney was practicing her piano lesson and Lark smiled goodbye, his face happily smeared with chocolate ice cream.

A few weeks ago, Helen was speaking to a group of people at a house party given to raise funds to save the Rosenbergs and to free her husband.

"If they die, it~~x~~ is your death, too," she said. "While Morty is in prison, the handcuffs are on your wrists, too.

"Will you let your sister and brother, Ethel and Julie, die?

"Will you let your brother, Morty, die the living death of 30 years in prison?"

And to this small brave woman who holds her head high with love and pride and struggle, the people are answering, They shall not die.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO SECURE
JUSTICE IN THE ROSENBERG CASE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

For the information of the Newark Office, the New York Office has advised that an advertisement appeared in the "Bergen Evening Record," a New Jersey newspaper, on March 2, 1953, which was placed in the newspaper by the New Jersey Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs, 572 Prospect Street, Maplewood, New Jersey, urging letters and telegrams for clemency. The New York Office has also forwarded to the Bureau the page of this newspaper on which the advertisement appears.

The Bureau, by memorandum to the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice, is requesting its immediate opinion as to whether it would be possible for the government to institute action in the name of SA Harrington for libel, and, in addition, to enjoin the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case and its local committees from having published such false statements.

The Bureau is desirous of being advised of similar advertisements which may appear in the reputable press in your respective field divisions.

MEMO SAC, JOHN F. MALONE

Re: CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO SECURE
JUSTICE IN THE ROSENBERG CASE

~~DAVID ALMAN~~, of New York City, the National Executive Secretary of instant committee, spoke on the history of the Rosenberg Case. ALMAN condemned the FBI, the trial judge, and the government prosecutor, and the trial in general. He claimed the government used only three witnesses who were supposed to have given pertinent testimony. He then condemned DAVID GREENGLASS for testifying against his sister.

Rabbi S. P. YAMPAL then took the floor and described the sentence of the ROSENBERGs as being the result of the "cold war" built up on prejudice against minorities in the United States.

~~JOSEPH BRAININ~~, of New York City, the National Chairman of instant committee, spoke briefly on his intention to continue the fight until the ROSENBERGs were granted their freedom.

A collection was then taken up.

Persons present and recognized by the informant, in addition to those heretofore named were as follows:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ILGWU JEWISH EDITOR OPPOSES CAPITAL PUNISHMENT FOR ROSENBERGS

Simon Farber, editor of the Jewish edition of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union monthly periodical "Justice", declared in an article in the Feb., 1953 edition discussing the Rosenberg Case, that he is opposed to capital punishment in any case, "In this instance," Farber stated, "the Rosenbergs are no exception."

Noting the existence of heated debates over carrying out the death sentence, Farber cautioned against passing judgment lightly.

"In this instance, to come out against clemency, one must be certain that the convicted have not only committed the crime and have done so consciously, but that the severe penalty is needed in order to protect society from similar acts in the future. Then again, in order to come out for clemency, one must feel certain that this will not encourage others to commit similar crimes hoping to go unpunished.

"Because of the above stated reasons," Farber declared, "I do not feel justified to express an opinion about the convicted except for my general position of being in principle opposed to capital punishment in any case."

Farber wrote he believed that the wrath of most of those demanding the death sentence was not directed against the Rosenbergs personally but was impelled by a burning hatred of communism and the heavy taxes, fear of a third World War and Korean casualties which he asserted such people feel is a product of Communist dictatorship.

Describing these people as "sincere" and "pained", Farber went on, "It is a different matter, however, with certain politicians who seek to utilize the justifiable bitterness against the Communists by attacking every progressive law or the more liberal government officials. From them the Rosenbergs case is like the Alger Hiss case, and other similar revelations — a good opportunity to keep the people in a state of hysteria. The discussion about the Rosenbergs gives them an opportunity to pour a little more oil on the fire which they want to warm their hands."

Growing labor opposition to execution of the Rosenbergs was further reflected in a motion adopted at a regular meeting of the 3200-member Local 78 of the United Furniture Workers, CIO, on Thursday, Feb. 26, to send a telegram to Pres. Eisenhower urging clemency for the Rosenbergs.

The Milwaukee office has obtained a tape recording of a record being used by the various Rosenberg Committees in various cities for the purpose of assisting in raising funds to assist in the defense of the Rosenbergs.

The recording begins as follows:

"The San Francisco Bay Area Committee to save the Rosenbergs presents 'THEY MUST NOT DIE' the documented story of the Rosenbergs, written by FIZLEZI (phonetic) and produced by the San Francisco Labor Theater".

The recording charges that the Rosenbergs were framed and depicts scenes involving FBI agent presenting them in a very unfavorable manner.

A copy of this recording can be made available to the Bureau if the same is not already in their possession.

Copies of this letter are being forwarded New York as office of origin and to San Francisco as the records states it emanates from that area.

On 2/24/53, [REDACTED] of known reliability, made available to SA JAMES E. HELMER the following paraphrased report:

"A Mass Rally, sponsored by 'The Philadelphia Committee To Secure Justice In The Rosenberg Case', was held Thursday, 2/19/53, at the Paramount Mansion, southwest corner of Broad Street and Girard Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. The meeting was called to order at 9:00 p.m. by JEAN FRANTJIS. The guest speaker was Professor EPHRAIM CROSS, from the City College of New York, a lawyer and member of the New York Bar.

"This meeting was supposed to have been a broad meeting. However, I would say it was almost entirely made up of Communists.

"JEAN DUNN FRANTJIS was the Chairman for the evening. The first speaker was Professor CROSS, who stated that the trial of the ROSENBERGS was nothing more than a frame-up. He stated that the ROSENBERGS could not be tried for treason inasmuch as the supposed secrets given by them to Russia were given during peace time, and at a time when Russia and the United States were working in close harmony. He stated that such a charge would never have stood up before the U. S. Supreme Court. As a result, the ROSENBERGS were tried on conspiring to give secrets. Professor CROSS stated that this was why the ROSENBERGS were sentenced to death; because of the lie of DAVID GREENGLASS that they had conspired together, and had talked about how they might give the secret to the Soviet Union.

"Continuing, Professor CROSS accused this country of anti-Semitism at this trial. He warned the people not to think otherwise merely because the Prosecutor and the Judge were Jewish. He pointed out that there were bad Jews as well as good Jews, just like there are bad and good Christians. In the ROSENBERG case, there were nothing but bad Jews.

"He then compared the ROSENBERG case with the DREYFUS case in France. He called for action on the ROSENBERGS' behalf by every decent American. He stated that pressure from people would eventually bring clemency for the ROSENBERGS, and possibly a new trial.

"Following Professor CROSS' speech, a record was played with actors and actresses portraying prison guards and the ROSENBERG children. This recording was very dramatic. It drips with heartfelt emotions, and played upon the emotions of every mother and father present at this rally. The recording consisted of a speech by MRS. ROSENBERG declaring she was innocent of any charge of treason or conspiracy. After the recording which had the prison guards taunting the ROSENBERG children in jail where they had gone to visit their parents after 18 months of not being able to see them, the prison guards offering to show BOBBY and MIKE ROSENBERG the chair in which their parents would die, JEAN DUNN FRANTJIS came to the rostrum and asked everyone present to contribute something in fighting for clemency for the ROSENBERGS. At this point JACK ZUCKER got up and said that he felt that after such hearing of the recording, he should give some money. He said he was starting things off with $5.00. The rest of the crowd soon followed suit.

"This offer by JACK ZUCKER apparently was done in order to protect JEAN DUNN FRANTJIS because JEAN DUNN had recently been arrested for soliciting funds for the ROSENBERG Committee. JACK ZUCKER, in taking over the meeting from JEAN DUNN FRANTJIS, was apparently attempting to stymie any further charges against her.

"The meeting ended after the people present were urged to volunteer to go to Washington, D. C., to keep a round-the-clock 24 hour vigil at the White House urging clemency for the ROSENBERGS. They were also asked to distribute leaflets, volunteer to make telephone calls, etc."

DETAILS:

All informants are of known reliability unless otherwise noted. All activity took place at Baltimore, Maryland, unless specifically noted otherwise.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were convicted on March 29, 1951 in the U. S. Court for the Southern District of New York, together with MORTON SOBELL, of conspiracy to commit espionage. On April 5, 1951, JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were sentenced to death by the Trial Judge, the Honorable IRVING KAUFMAN.

The October 10, 1951 issue of the "National Guardian" contained, at the end of an article captioned "The Letters of ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG", an announcement as follows: ".....

"Last week the formation began of a National Committee to Secure Justice for the ROSENBERGS. WILLIAM A. REUBEN, noted author of the Guardian series on the case, will act as provisional chairman. The formation of this committee was stimulated by the Guardian series on the case, and at the Guardian's suggestion every effort will be made to enlist the committee from among rank and file people who are concerned over the case."

The California Committee on Un-American Activities in its 1949 report, page 394, cited the "National Guardian" as "a publication launched in New York in 1948, aiming at national circulation, which, from its inception, was notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management, and content."

[REDACTED] furnished a copy of a press release dated December 31, 1951 which announced the formation of the "National Committee to Secure Justice in the ROSENBERG Case" with offices at 246 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York. b7D

CP LINE

The American tradition of courtroom trials is not a single tradition. There are two traditions. There is the tradition of a fair trial and there is the tradition of the frameup, the tradition of bought or terrorized juries, and the tradition of wild hysteria fanned by the press and government officials in cases involving the Negro people, the labor movement, and today, the Communists or any Progressives who fall into the dragnet.

Their conviction is not backed by a single piece of evidence. In other circumstances, the officials could not get a conviction on such evidence to convict a pickpocket. There simply does not exist the slightest evidence to confirm the crude forgery of the government's case.

Furthermore, Judge KAUFMAN had the audacity to claim that the non-existent 'secret' which the ROSENBERGS were alleged to have 'stolen' was the cause of the Korean war! There is no 'secret' and they did not 'steal' what did not exist; but the judge did not hesitate to turn the nation's hatred of Wall Street's profitable war in Korea against two innocent people.

ORGANIZATION LINE

"The prosecution prejudiced and inflamed the jury by bringing in extraneous issues in every phase of the trial."

"When unionists face a jury, they frequently find it 'stacked' with representatives of management, in the way Negroes are often tried by all-white juries. Not only were there no Jews on the jury that convicted the ROSENBERGS but among these jurors were to be found bankers, government employees, friends of FBI agents, foremen and managers of big corporations and the like."

"If this is 'evidence' anyone can be proven guilty of anything."

"The contention of 'secrecy' concerning atomic information has been the most assiduously-planted propaganda of the cold war."

"Although the government time and again announced that the 'secret' of the A-bomb was no secret.... The judge meted out death saying '.....your conduct has already caused....the Communist aggression in Korea.'"
